1948 CLASS WILL

We, the class of 1948 being of sound minds (you've never seen such hard stuff), strong bodies, and with full intentions of departing soon (school, that is), do hereby make, publish, and declare our last will and testament.

Carl wills his ability to make a basket in the last few seconds of a game to his brother Ray.

Joanne Foust wills her ability to eat five ice cream bars each noon, without damage, to Leah Williamson.

Emmit, who got his ability to be a "Lone Wolf" from Lafie Leeth, who got it from Bob Hough, wills the "Wolf" half to Doyle Breedlove. Emmit figures he will need a "Loan" himself.

Marietta wills her ability to keep a steady stream of cars (which maybe you don't know about) going between Paulding and the Zielke Ranch to Iva Lou Laukhuf.

Tom wills his ability to get the Sportsmanship trophy at the Paulding County Tournament to any future Haviland basketball player.

Helen leaves her typewriter and her one perfect paper to Ruth Kimmey.

Dick wills his "modest ways" to Dick Groh. (You better take them, Dick, you might need them).

Jody Hough wills her ability as a drum majorette to Ilo Belle Hofacker.

Cloyd wills his ability to sleep in Rex's study hall to anybody who thinks a desk makes a comfortable bed.

Gene wills his ability to look so natural in plays, that is when he is eating, to any future Senior who loves to eat.

CLASS PROPHECY

Zooming into the future twenty years in our jet-propelled hot-rod, we stopped first at "The Stork Club." It is now owned by "Hot Lips" Laukhuf. "Hot Lips" gave us a real treat on our visit. He played "The Bells of St. Mary's" on his cornet. (He was keeping in practice for the National Hog Calling Contest.)

One of the latest sensations at "The Stork Club" was a fashion show, featuring Joanne and Jody. They modeled "The New Look" in fur lined bathing suits for the coming "Ice Age."

Now on to Cuba. Here we found "Cal" Sinn working out the Chicago Cubs. He was their star player for six years, and for the last fourteen years has owned and managed them. Tom Myers was his bat boy super-colossal. He had paid enough income tax by 1967 to finish off the national debt.

Off to Washington, D. C. Walking down Pennsylvania Avenue we met an enormous parade. It was the welcoming procession for Senator "Mike" Lehman. As we watched we saw a red motorcycle right in front of the Senator's car. On it was one of his body guards, Special Agent Zielke. Her greatest catch was that famous international spy, "Keyhole" Scarbrough.

In Hollywood we dropped in on that ace director "Dizzy" Davidson. His latest discovery was a new leading man, a real tough guy, known to movie goers as "Cloyd Bogart." We knew him as Cloyd Hockenberry, formerly of Scott. It was rumored that "Dizzy's" Beverly Hills home had been bombed by the head chemist at the Tomlinson Chemical Company.

That made the rounds and here we were over Havil—Sp-T-T. My! Haviland's new hospital certainly comes in handy after crash landings.

Sports Review

We all like to play so all hands on deck for a quick game of basketball.

C H A M P S

February 21st, 1948, will go down in the annals of basketball history as far as all true "Wildcat" fans are concerned. Haviland walked off with the Paulding County Tournament Trophy, the League Championship Trophy, the School Sportsmanship Trophy, and Tom Myers was awarded the Parker Individual Sportsmanship Trophy. A few days later it was announced that all of Haviland's first five had made the All County First Ten.

The "Wildcat" quintet went on to Celina still in a victorious mood. They outplayed and outscored Willshire in their first game, and went into their second game with Rockford determined that they would not suffer defeat from Rockford again. That determination carried them into the semi-finals, and earned them the name "The Giant Killers." St. Rose was their third opponent, and to the bitter disappointment of the team and the fans, their last one. St. Rose won the tilt by one point, scoring 4 points in the last 7 seconds of play, to end the official court season for Haviland. This did not end the honors for the Varsity though, for Carl Sinn won a place on the First Five Sectional Tournament team. Congratulations to a wonderful team.

1947-48 BASKETBALL SEASON IN REVIEW

Nov. 10—The first game of the season, and Haviland-Scott started off strong by beating Union 74-18. The reserves lost 22 to 30.

Nov. 14—Another high scoring win for the Varsity over the Grover Hill Hornets—50 to 15. The Little Cats lost 14 to 18.

Nov. 21—On the Antwerp court we played a hard and close game, coming out on top 42-32. The reserves came close, but lost 31-32.

Nov. 25—The Wildcats traveled to Rockford to meet their first defeat. The Varsity score was 33 to 41. The reserves also lost 10-37.

Dec. 5—The Boys took Oakwood by 16 points on the home floor. Varsity score—56-40. The reserves came through with a 20 to 18 victory.

Dec. 12—The Payne Panthers came to Haviland to meet the Wildcats. The Varsity score was 54 to 41—just another victory. The Kittens lost 24 to 28.

Dec. 19—The Wildcats traveled to Latty to take a close decision over the Lions. The Varsity score, 27 to 23. The Cubs beat the Little Cats, 19 to 36.

Jan. 2—The Cats started the New Year right by romping to a 34 point lead on Grover Hill's floor—54 to 20. The Reserves lost 29-21.

Jan. 9—Antwerp came over to meet Haviland and defeat. The score was 47 to 34. The reserves lost 21 to 29.

Jan. 16—The Wildcats prowled to Payne to meet the Panthers. The Cats were hitting, and took both games. Varsity score 62 to 18. Reserve score 28 to 24.

Jan. 23—The Cats rolled into Oakwood for their ninth straight league win 50 to 33. The Kittens lost 29 to 34.

Jan. 30—Latty came down for a tense, close game, losing by one point, 44 to 43. The Kittens lost 19 to 38.

Feb. 3—Hoaglin-Jackson provided the players with the tightest game of the season. The Wildcats were trailing three points with less than 10 seconds to play when swish, swish, and swish, they finished the game with a two point lead—42 to 40. The reserves lost 16 to 31.

Feb. 6—At Paulding the Panthers tripped the Wildcats with the same score Rockford used—33 to 41. The Reserves lost a close one 25 to 27.

All Through Life

Each year Haviland has students that are outstanding in the opinion of the student body. This year is no exception. On top of the list are Best Students, Emmitt Lehman and Helen Tomlinson; Best Citizen, Richard Davidson; Best Athletes, Carl Sinn and Iva Lou Laukhuf; Most Popular, Tom Myers and Joan Laukhuf; Most Activities, Marvin Laukhuf and Evaleen Shaw. The Havilook Staff salutes you Outstanding Students.

“BAND”

Haviland had a marching band this year thanks to the ability of its director, Miss Triplett, and to the willingness of all the band members.

The Band did not only a fine job of executing good marching form, but an excellent job of playing. They were especially appreciated by the fans of visiting ball clubs whose schools had no band. Keep it up Band!

Mixed Chorus this year was a busy place—enjoyably busy. Early in September chorus members realized there was work ahead, but that it would be fun. Each session, new songs appeared that were to be worked out for later use. During the year the chorus furnished music for several chapel services and Farmers Institute. The program to be remember longest probably was the all Musical Christmas Cantata with all sixty members in robes and appearing for the first time on the new risers. Several of the Chorus members sang at the Spring Session of the County Teachers Institute and the whole Chorus journeyed to Payne on March 4th to present four numbers at the Paulding County meeting of the Methodist W.S.C.S. Laura Dene Williamson sang a soprano solo, and a trio consisting of Laura Dene, Evaleen Shaw, and Gloria Stiebeling sang at the District Ensemble Contest on March 13th. Marvin Lauthuf also entered that contest to play a cornet solo.

The Chorus and Girls Glee Club will appear again this spring at the Music Festival to be held at the Ohio Northern University and we predict they will uphold their fine record of past occasions. At this writing, the group is already preparing for what is the final appearance with the choir of all Seniors—Baccalaureate. Haviland is mighty proud of its School Choir that has in it every boy and girl in High School.

G. A. A.

The G. A. A. is the girls side of the sports at the Haviland-Scott School. Some high spots in the program of the organization include field nights with other schools and the annual trip to the Van Wert Y.W.C.A. for an evening of skating and swimming.

The G. A. A. is composed of all girls participating in the Physical Education program. By developing a keener interest in sportsmanship, cooperation, and general friendliness, the G. A. A. helps round out each girl's education.

The officers of the G. A. A. are as follows:

PRESIDENT: Iva Lou Laukhuf.

FRESHMAN ASSISTANT: Alice Williamson.

SOPHOMORE ASSISTANT: Carrie Hartwig.

SENIOR ASSISTANT: Helen Tomlinson.

Middle row—Joanne Hough, Marietta Zielke, Wilmena Kent, Phyllis Davis, Deloris Keysor, Erma Lehman, Eleanor Hoaglin, Gloria Springer, Geraldine Rider, Patty Groh, Mrs. Ensign, Instructor.
Bottom row—Olive Leeth, Mary Lou Akom, Joan Foust, Ireta Decker, Gloria Stiebling, Alice Williamson, Jeanne Griffis, Betty Finnegan, Ruth Kimmey, Joan Laukhuf.

"Take It Easy"

SENIOR PLAY

CAST

Mrs. Amanda Highgate—A very forgetful, eccentric type.....	Helen Tomlinson
Nancy Highgate—Her attractive daughter.....	Joanne Foust
Tom Laurence—An artist in love with Nancy.....	Emmit Lehman
Lon Taurence—A house painter.....	Gene Scarbrough
John Florenz—A mysterious painter.....	Carl Sinn
Florence—The coquettish maid.....	Joanne Hough
Philip—A bewildered butler.....	Cloyd Hockenberry
Mary—The very outspoken cook.....	Marietta Zielke
Arthur—The mischievous yard boy.....	Tom Myers
Beagle Jones—A boastful detective.....	Marvin Laukhuf
Director—Rex Scarbrough	Stage Manager—Richard Davidson

SYNOPSIS

The situation at Highgate House was sufficiently bewildering with the erratic Mrs. Highgate continually forgetting names and mistaking the identities of her daughter and servants, but it becomes a pandemonium of rib-cracking laughs when, in her mad scramble to keep from being outdone in her social set, she decides to have her portrait painted—and by an artist, Tom Laurence. Three painters get mixed up in the story somehow and it is quite a jumbled up affair. The hilarious mixup continues until Lon, on his knees before the angry cook, pleads "Take It Easy."

"Pig Tails"
JUNIOR PLAY

CAST

Gaye Brooks—"Pigtails", our adorable young heroine.....Evaleen Shaw
Sydney Campbell—A small town business man.....Arthur Carter
Mrs. Campbell—"Lucilla", his wife, who has social ambitions...Iva Lou Laukhuf
Kenyon Campbell—Their son.....Dale Yoh
Annabella Campbell—Their attractive young daughter.....Ruth Kimmey
Florabelle Campbell—Another daughter.....Joan Laukhuf
Primrose White—The colored maid.....Ilo Belle Hofacker
Norma Kirk—Whose family is wealthy.....Patty Groh
Brenda Baynes—Who loves to listen to the radio.....Leah Williamson
Watt Manners—Kenyon's College Chum.....Fred Hartwig
Thurlow Ladd—A business executive.....Bill Murphy
Ursula James—A disappointed young lady.....Geraldine Rider
Director—Miss Daubert

SYNOPSIS

When "Pigtails", eighteen year old mischief from a Montana ranch, comes to live with the Sydney Campbell family in a town near a smart summer resort, things start moving. The crude, but lovable young rootin, tooting, Western Miss certainly upsets Mrs. Campbell, who thinks of herself as a social leader. Although ten other people get mixed up in the story, the end is satisfactory.

Mary Lou—Did you ever have your radio on, honey?

Jim—Yah, lots of times.

Mary Lou—How did it fit?

Miss Triplett: You don't know what time it is.

Miss Daubert: What's the difference? I am not going anywhere.
